

I support petition RM-10808, which retains code testing only for the Amateur Extra class. Morse Code is obsolete technology, and no US government department uses it. Requiring code testing discourages many prospective amateurs because it is difficult to learn, and they know they will never use it in actual communications.